Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE,
Conway, Ark.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

The Miller's Will.

A famous old miller lived over the way. His three sons looked for his death each day. He was old and stiff and he made his will. And he had to dispose of his old grist mill. He called to his bedside his eldest son, and he said to the youngster, "My race is run, What sort of a miller, now, would you make? Pray tell me, my boy, what toll you'd take?" "Father, as sure as my name is Teck, Of every last bushel I'd take a peck." The old man sighed and shook his head, "You'd starve to death," was all he said. Next he called up his second son and asked him the same as the other one. "Father," he answered, "my name is Gaff, Of every last bushel I'd take the half." The old man sighed and shook his head, "You'd make no money," was all he said. But he called his last and youngest son, To answer the question as all had done. "Father, as sure as my name is Jack, I'd cabbage the grain and swear to the sack!" Then "Hallelujah!" the old man said, "The business will prosper when I am dead!" Edray, W. Va. SUSIE MANN.

Col. A. C. L. Gatewood, of Linwood, Pocahontas county, was here on Tuesday. He had been spending about two weeks in Augusta, and left for West Virginia Friday. Speaking of the Confederate Camp, of which he is commander, he says that efforts will shortly be made to have the remains of all Confederate soldiers buried in the county exhumed and re-interred in one place and a monument erected to their memory. Why cannot this be done in Bath?—Bath News.
